

The four C's for reflection

Continuous

Connected

Challenging

Contextualized

Putting Reflection into Practice

How could your students continuously reflect on their learning?

How do our students connect their learning?

How do you intentionally support students when they are challenged by their experiences?

How do we capture the evidence that our students are learning from their experiences?

Action Items